

LECTURE SERIES

FALL 2011

Thursday, September 8

Moacir Miranda, Professor of Business Administration. School of Business (FEA). University of São Paulo
Cultural Differences and Management Styles: The Experience of Brazilian Corporations Abroad

Friday, September 9

Jeffrey Gould, Professor of History. Director of the Center for Latin American Studies. Indiana University
Marxism and Liberation Theology: Notes from Morazan

Thursday, September 15

John Collins, Associate Professor of Anthropology. Queens College. CUNY
Futures Entombed: Properly Historical Subjects, Living Human Treasure, and the Materialization of Heritage in a Brazilian World Heritage Zone

Friday, September 16, 5:00-8:00p.m., 101 ISB

CLACS Reception. 101 International Studies Building

Thursday, September 22

Markus Schulz, Assistant Professor. Sociology
Development Innovation Outcomes and Global Imaginaries?

Friday, September 23-Thursday, September 29

2011 Latin American Film Festival. Art Theater, Champaign

Thursday, September 29

Prof. K. David Jackson, Yale University
Concrete Poetry: 'Augusto Fingers': dacto, grypho, grama, clip

Thursday, October 6

Wail Hassan, Associate Professor. World Comparative Literature
Alberto Mussa and the Translation of Arabic Poetry in Brazil

Thursday, October 13

Maria Tapias (Associate Professor of Anthropology. Grinnell College) and Xavier Escandell (Associate Professor of Sociology. University of Northern Iowa)
Anxieties of Ascent: Middle Class Aspirations among Bolivian Return Migrants from Spain

Ibero-Latin American Visualities Speakers Series. Krannert Art Museum Auditorium, 5:30 pm

Shinpei Takeda, Japanese independent artist based in Tijuana, Mexico
Downloading Memories of Post-Conflict Diasporas: Art and Ethnography as Public Scholarship

Thursday, October 20

Marcelo Kuyumjian, Graduate Student, Music
The Impact of the American Cultural Influence in Samba

Thursday, October 27

Peter Smith, Distinguished Professor of Political Science. UC San Diego
The Alliance for Progress: Social Science and Hemispheric Hegemony

Friday-Saturday, October 28-29, 101 International Studies Building

Tinker Workshop

Thursday, November 3

Daniella Gandolfo, Assistant Professor Anthropology. Wesleyan University
Formless: A Day in "The Hole"

Thursday, November 10

Eduardo F. Coutinho, Distinguished Lemann Visiting Professor
Comparative Literature in Brazil: Aspects and Problems

Thursday, November 17

Elena Delgado, Associate Professor. Spanish, Italian and Portuguese
Community of interests? Colombian Literature and the Spanish Publishing Market

Thursday, December 1

Kristina Medina, PhD Candidate Spanish, Italian and Portuguese
Sand-key, Pant-keys: Colonial Discourse, Tourism and Male Prostitution in Caribbean Film

PLACE 101 International Studies Bldg, 910 S. Fifth St. Champaign

TIME: All sessions begin at NOON unless otherwise noted above

Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies

For more information on our activities check <http://www.clacs.illinois.edu>

CLACS