LECTURE SERIES
FALL 2017

Tuesday, September 5 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Vladimir Safatle, Philosophy
Universidade de São Paulo
“The Collapse of the Brazilian New Republic”

Thursday, September 7 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Claudia Lagos, Institute of Communications Research
University of Illinois
“The role of conservative press in human rights violations in Chile: The case of El Mercurio newspaper”

Thursday, September 7 - Room 101 ISB, 5:30pm
Claudia Lagos, Institute of Communications Research
University of Illinois
“Agustín’s Newspaper” Documentary + Q&A

Tuesday, September 12 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Liv Sovik, Communication
Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro
“Rap and the Brazilian Pop Music Tradition”

Thursday, September 14 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Alan LeBaron, History and Interdisciplinary Studies
Director of Maya Heritage Community Project
Kennesaw State University, GA
“Maya Guatemalan Diaspora to the United States: Obstacles vs. Aspirations and the Beginning of the Maya-American”

Thursday, September 21 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Special presentation from Mayoral Delegation
Kenscoff, Haiti

September 22-28 - The Art Theater, 126 W Church St
Latin American Film Festival 2017
More information about the movies at:
http://www.clacs.illinois.edu

Tuesday, September 26 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Benito Schmidt, History
Universidade Federal do Rio Grande do Sul
“Crossing Frontiers and Making the Revolution: Transnational Experiences of a Brazilian Revolutionary Militant (1960s and 1970s)”

Tuesday, October 3 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Ryan Shosted, Linguistics
University of Illinois
“The Vowel Lenition in Brazilian Portuguese: Ultrasound Evidence”

Thursday, October 5 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
César Ferreira, Spanish and Portuguese
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee
“On Memory, Fiction and Autobiographical Writing: The Case of Mario Vargas Llosa and Gabriel García Márquez”

Thursday, October 12 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Ramona Hernández, Sociology
Director of the Dominican Studies Institute
The City University of New York - Graduate School
“The Dominican People in the U.S.: Different Migrant Streams, Divergent Stories”

Thursday, October 26 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Marta R. Duran-Costi, School of Social Work
University of Illinois
“Health promotion interventions: Are they working on Hispanic population?”

Wednesday, November 1 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Juan Filipe Stacul, Languages
Instituto Federal de Goiás
“Eros Drives in Sinuous Curves: Masculinity and Desire in Caio Fernando Abreu and Tennessee Williams”

Thursday, November 2 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Carlos Eduardo Suprinyak, Economic Sciences
Facultad de Ciencias Económicas, Centro de Desarrollo y Planeamiento Regional Universidade Federal de Minas Gerais
“The Ford Foundation and Brazilian Economics: modernization and pluralism in an authoritarian society”

Thursday, November 9 - Room 101 ISB, 12pm
Matthew Winters, Political Sciences
University of Illinois
“The Future of Foreign Aid in Bolivia”

November 16-17 - Alice Campbell Alumni Center
7th Annual Lemann Dialogue
More information about the event at:
http://lemann.illinois.edu/

Symposium: November 17-18 - Room 314 Illini Union
Indigenous (Latin) America: Territories, Knowledge, and Voices
More information about the symposium at:
http://www.clacs.illinois.edu

Thursday, November 30 - Casa Cultural Latina, 12pm
Alexandra McNichols-Torresledo, Professional Photographer
“Cultural Survival and Land Dispossession: A Photographic Essay on the Sioux and the Embera Peoples of North and South America”

Tuesday, December 5 - Room 101 ISB, 2pm
Jonathan DeVore, Anthropology
University of Michigan
“Forest as a Sublime Power: Reconsidering the Non-Human in Brazilian Struggles for Recognition”

More information: www.clacs.illinois.edu
901 S. Fifth St, Champaign, IL 61820
clacs@illinois.edu - (217) 333-3182